Little Star publicity:

We are asking families if they would like to be involved in publicity as this helps to raise awareness of children's cancers and more funds for research. If you are interested in helping us do this, a Cancer Research UK press officer may contact you to talk this through with you. Your details will not be passed to the media without your prior agreement. You are under no obligation to take part in publicity and we will respect your wishes should you choose not to.

If possible, we would like a picture of your Little Star, which can be e-mailed to littlestar@cancer.org.uk or posted to us. Unfortunately we are unable to return original copies of photographs.

☐ I am happy for my Little Star to help with publicity and I consent to details of our experience and names / pictures to be used.

☐ I would prefer not to help with any publicity

Any information given to us by you will be stored with complete confidentiality with a very limited number of people who can access it. We comply with the Data Protection Act and therefore do require permission from you to store personal information on our system. The information we hold is specifically recorded for the purpose of working with the media, raising awareness, guiding our research, materials and information and assisting other bodies who we work in partnership with or share similar aims.

We may share summaries of your story/images we hold with journalists, researchers or other relevant parties. The summaries do not contain your contact details. Any information shared with journalists, researchers or other partners is provided as background information only. It may not be used or reproduced without your express consent. If a journalist or other party asks to be put in touch with you, we never pass on your details without checking with you first. We will always brief you exactly why your input is being sought and give you as much detail as possible to help you make your decision. Only when we have your express permission will we share your details.

We do not use your information to ask you for donations and your details will not be included on any fundraising databases (unless you are already on an existing database because you have had contact with our fundraising department previously).
