

Guess the name of the puppy

Thank you for all your efforts so far to raise money for Cancer Research UK's life saving work. By now your training and your fundraising are probably well under way. Just in case your funds need an extra boost, you can use this poster to help increase your fundraising total. The puppy poster is easy to use and could add more than £40 to the money you raise.

Win a prize and raise money for Cancer Research UK.

Together we will beat cancer

How this poster works (no purchase necessary)

- 1) As the organiser; choose a name from those on the poster; write it on a piece of paper and seal it in an envelope – don't forget to keep it a secret!
- 2) Stick this poster up at your place of work – in the staff room, kitchen, any place that people gather.
- 3) Get everyone to write their name under the puppy's name of choice, and make a suggested donation of £1.
- 4) Then when all the names are full, or on a designated day, open the envelope containing the name you wrote down at the start and reveal the winner.
- 5) The winner receives £5 and you can add the rest of the money to your sponsorship total.
- 6) That's it – it's that easy!

Rules

- 1) Only people who work on the premises where the poster is displayed are eligible to enter and the sweepstake may not be publicised outside these premises.
- 2) Once the game is over the money should be added to your fundraising total and sent with the rest of your Race for Life funds to Cancer Research UK.

How to send your money to us

- 1) Via the web at www.raceforlife.org/payinyoursponsorship (individuals only).
