Worldwide Cancer Mortality

There were an estimated 8.2 million deaths from cancer in the world in 2012. These deaths were not spread evenly across the globe and the reliability of cancer statistics available for each country varies.

4 most common causes of cancer deaths in each region

Cancer mortality per 100,000 people

Higher
Global average
Lower

International Agency for Research on Cancer