The Great Golf Challenge fundraising ideas

To make sure you’re rewarded for your efforts we’ve put together these handy fundraising tips and ideas to kick-start your challenge.

Kick-starters

Get off to a flyer!
You’re signed up and raring to go. What now? Where to begin? Show potential supporters that you’re committed and kick off the donations yourself with a contribution to your Giving Page.

Tell your story
Our most successful fundraisers often have really personal Giving Pages. Kit yours out with the works – consider including the story of why you’ve decided to take part, regular updates, photos, and of course a thank you to your lovely donors.

Promote yourself online
There are loads of great ways to make sure everyone knows you’re taking on The Great Golf Challenge for Cancer Research UK. Upload your official badge to Facebook and share your Giving Page across your social networks for some instant results.

Together we will beat cancer
At the office

Office treats
Keep it simple. You can always rely on a bake sale to whip up a few pounds. Delight your colleagues with some treats in exchange for them topping up your funds.

Get your golf gear on
Wear your golf gear to work, you’ll grab plenty of attention – and lots of sponsorship too!

Host a mini-golf tournament
Take a piece of the golfing action into the office by setting up a crazy golf course. Your colleagues can then make a donation to join in the fun.

Fundraising events

Raffles and hampers
Ask local shops to see what they could donate to make up a hamper and prizes and then raffle these off. You could even ask your clubhouse to host this event.

Host a quiz night
Everyone loves a quiz – it’s a great way of attracting guests and getting them to donate. Why not make it a golf themed quiz?

Wrap up event
“I’ll donate when you’ve done it.” These are the words no fundraiser wants to hear. Hold doubters to their word with a wrap up event at the end of your challenge, and lap up those last minute donations.

Get your club involved
Let your club know you’re raising money for Cancer Research UK and they may let you put up fundraising posters around the clubhouse to encourage donations.

Clear out the old
Why not have a clear out and sell your old clothes? You could auction them online or head to a car boot sale, then donate the money made to your Giving Page.

Make mistakes matter
Agree fines with your team for any lost balls, air shots or bunkers on your golf day, then donate this money to boost your team total.

Fundraising boosters

Share on social
Share pictures and updates from your golf day on Facebook, Twitter and Instagram alongside your Giving Page so people can easily donate.