UK Electronic Cigarette Research Forum

Date & time: October 02nd 2015 10:30-15:30
Location: Cancer Research UK, Angel Building, St John Street, London, EC1V 4AD
Chair: Professor Ann McNeill, Kings College London and UK Centre for Tobacco and Alcohol Studies

Agenda

10:30-10:45: Welcome, introductions and recap of the first meeting - Alison Cox, Cancer Research UK

10:45-11:00: Update on Cancer Research UK commissioned research since last meeting - Linda Bauld, Chair of Tobacco Advisory Group at Cancer Research UK

11:00-11:30: Opportunity for funders to feedback on new research

11:30-12:00: Measuring e-cigarette use and products – what questions should we be asking of young people and adults? - Sara Hitchman and Leonie Brose, Kings College London and UK Centre for Tobacco & Alcohol Studies

12:00-12:15: Questions and discussion on last presentation

12:15-12:45: The EU Tobacco Products Directive: where are we now and what is likely to happen from next year? - Alison Cox, Cancer Research UK and Stephen Knight, Department of Health

12:45-13:00: Questions and discussion on last presentation

13:00-13:45: Lunch & networking

13:45-15:00: Group Discussions

Groups:

- Measuring e-cigarette prevalence and products
- Research to measure the impact of the TPD

15:00-15:30: Feedback and next meeting

15:30: Close

Date for your diaries: The first meeting of the UKECRF in 2016 will be on January 21st